For the past several years, there has been a surge in public interest of classic-timeless Italian songs... this is primarily due to the overwhelming worldwide success of the 3 Tenors, Andrea Bocelli, Il Divo, Mario Frangoulis and Russell Watson. Recently, David Foster's protégé Josh Groban hit #1 on the Billboard charts with very little radio airplay... What's going on?

Once appreciated by a few opera aficionados, these classic romantic Italian songs with pop sensibility productions, are now being enjoyed by the masses.

Award winning Crooner/Composer/Connoisseur michéal CASTALDO's new release is a follow-up CD in the footsteps of his previous release entitled Villa (VR 2015).

With La Dolce Vita 'NAmerica Compact Disc he further explores his Italian roots infusing exotic world pop arrangements and personal renditions of the Italian mega hit songs of the 70's. Growing up in Toronto, Canada (the 6th largest Italian speaking community in the world) micheal listened to the ever popular CHIN radio station, learning Claudio Baglioni and Claudio Villa songs among other great artists. La Dolce Vita 'NAmerica CD also contains the ever popular aria from Puccini's Turandot 'Nessun Dorma', the heart wrenching classic Neapolitan song 'Vierno', Ennio Morricone's Nella Fantasia (Gabriel's Oboe) and a few melodically strong original songs. Rounding out the CD micheal adds a few bonus tracks for your listening and sing along pleasure.

A few points about michéal CASTALDO as a musician/songwriter/producer:
